Free consultation visits

All schools are offered an annual 1 hour free visit in the form of a professional dialogue to share the development needs of the curriculum. At this visit there is the opportunity to:

- Assess the school music provision
- Create an action plan based on the outcomes of the meeting

Continued support is provided through dialogue via email and telephone conversations

Chargeable CPD within schools

We have fully trained members of staff equipped to deliver CPD within your school or a family of schools.

Examples of how we have already helped schools:

- Leading twilight staff meetings
- INSET day—whole or half day
- Working along side teachers and modelling high quality music lessons
- Joint lesson observations with senior leaders
- Planning schemes of work
- Developing assessment strategies

What teachers have said about NMPAT courses and conferences:

“A fantastic day full of new ideas, information and inspiration.”

“Excellent day. Best course I’ve been on this year!”

“Great ideas and fantastic speakers.”

“An excellent course, very interactive, superb resources and Sue is an inspiration to all.”

“Everything was amazing—both presenters were fabulous.”

“I have been inspired, so hopefully my inspiration and enthusiasm will transfer to other teachers.”

“Lots of really great resources given out—I can’t wait to try them out with my class.”

“Great cross curricular ideas, particularly for linking music to literacy.”

“I have gained confidence and knowledge of how to involve children in music in a wider way. Fabulous!”

“The day was brilliant. Fantastic songs and engaging activities. Sue was brilliant!”

“I came in feeling very anxious and left feeling confident and inspired”
