Main part of the lesson to include some aspects of: Singing Composing Performing Listening Appraising	1) Revisit BREADMAKER'S BALLAD and smooth out any wrinkles in singing and actions. Decide on an occasion to perform this in an assembly. 2) Display the words of CAKE WRAP and listen to the mp3 recording with a Beatbox backing . Do pupils like this interpretation? Can they say why? 3) Divide the class into groups of 4 and invite them to create their own backing ostinato (repeated pattern) for CAKE WRAP to fit over 4 beats using untuned percussion. 4) Try out pupils' ostinato patterns, one group per verse, while others supply the spoken rap. Use WWW and EBI to stimulate critique and implement improvements. 5) Perform the rap. Appoint some solos and group voices, accompanied by ostinato patterns.
Ideas for revisiting in the week:	Share the new material in this unit with other classes.

CAKE WRAP!

Cakes are wonderful, cakes are great!
Such a treat to find one on your plate
Cakes are delicious, cakes are fine
What's your favourite? Here are mine:

Brownies, Battenberg, birthday cake, too
Pancakes, cupcakes with chocolate goo!
Jaffa cakes, cherry cakes, Boston cream pie!
Coffee cake, cheesecake - so many to try

Cakes are splendid, they're sublime
Celebration food for party time
Delicate meringues or caramel slice
Carrot cake, coffee cake or coconut ice!

Fondant fancies, petit fours
Lemon cake, layer cake and lots, lots more!
Shortbread, gingerbread, and flapjack squares
Bags of choice so we get fair shares!

Cakes are amazing, but seriously
To stay fit and healthy, don't eat ninety-three!
Sugar and fat aren't good by the ton
So have cake occasionally, everyone!
